Course Description

‘Dynamic Communication for Success’ offers insights how to effectively address subconscious and ineffective pre-programed communication patterns. It explores how using the ‘Discussion Formula’ can provide astonishing results when negotiating with others.

During the course theoretical and practical application of Lead Systems, Rapport, In-congruency, Calibration and the Discussion Formula are investigated to provide necessary communication skills for anyone to successfully reach the top in their professional and/or private life.

‘Dynamic Communication for Success’ provides techniques that are easily applied and incorporated within any health profession!

Your Facilitator

Your facilitator is Christine Ammann, an AKA, ATMS and BTA registered Specialised Kinesiology & Bowen Practitioner. Christine has been providing Kinesiology, Bowen, NLP & CST consultations for more than 15 years and currently consults from Physio Solutions in Brighton, SA. She has studied many different Kinesiology modalities in Australia and Europe, has developed her own ‘Dynamic Kinesiology’ modality and delivered her seminars and presentations at the RAH amongst other professional organisations.
